

Thinking about joining the church?

Pastor Sally will be offering a short two week class on March 22 and March 29 between the services on these two Sunday mornings. The classes will begin at 10:10 a.m. in room 100 and last about 45 minutes. Pastor Sally will be talking a little about basic Christian faith and how the Presbyterian Church fits into the larger Church.

Bring your questions because she will tailor the class to the participants. Hope to see you on March 22nd!
